NOTABLE CASES

Unlicensed Solicitor | Officers were dispatched to the Deer Run subdivision on a report of a solicitor offering to paint house numbers on the curb and asking for donations to OSU's medical school. He was cited for soliciting without a permit because he had been warned several times.

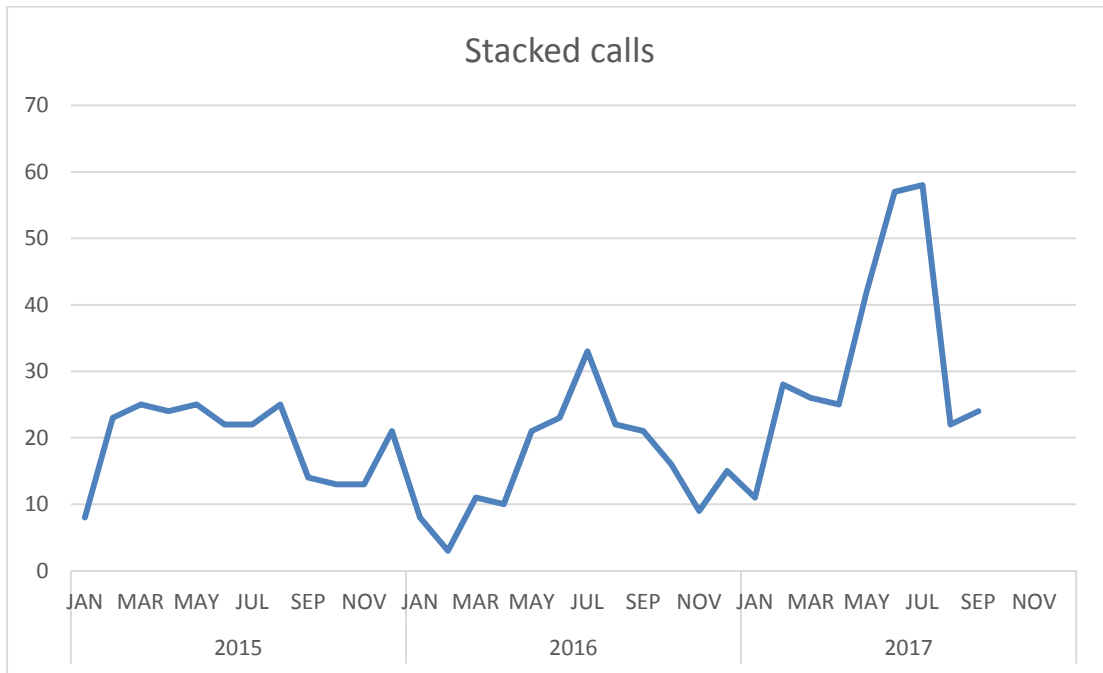

Forged Travelers Checks | A suspect passed forged travelers checks at a business on Sawmill Parkway. Powell Police identified the suspect as Anthony Sanders. The United States Marshals Service picked up the suspect and transported him to the Delaware County jail where he confessed to Powell Police Detective Smith. Mr. Sanders was on parole and faces charges for the same crime in locations around the country.

Dear Chief Vest,

Thank you for participating in the Ohio 9-1-1 Symposium on Wednesday, September 13, 2017. Your participation and opening remarks on behalf of the Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police were much appreciated.

We believe that building partnerships with local agencies, such as the Powell Police, and statewide associations like the OACP, forms the backbone of effective statewide cooperation to bring the citizens of our state the best possible level of 9-1-1 service. Your participation assisted in our common goal of public safety.

Sincerely,

Rob Jackson
Ohio 9-1-1 Administrator
